

Weddings at the Leopold Hotel:

Congratulations!

The question has been asked – it's time to start organising the most memorable day of your life.

At the Leopold Hotel we strive to make your plans stress free and ultimately enjoyable. From your first enquiry to the big day itself our team will look after all of your needs.

We pride ourselves on offering you the personal touch; as such you are guided through the process step by step by your own Wedding Coordinator. If you need suggestions on where to find that perfect dress or who to ask to make that scrumptious wedding cake, our Wedding Coordinator will have all the answers!

You can be sure that all of your requirements will be treated with the utmost care and our attention to detail is guaranteed.

Set in the heart of Sheffield City Centre the Leopold Hotel really is the jewel in the crown as the cities first four star boutique hotel.

The Leopold Hotel is built on the former site of a Grade II listed Boys Grammar School. While retaining 19th century elegance and architectural detail, the Leopold seamlessly integrates contemporary design. No expense has been spared in fashioning the 90 luxurious air-conditioned bedrooms and 5 individually designed ceremony and banqueting suites. Holding a Civil Wedding and Civil Partnership licence, the hotel is a beautiful setting for that all important day.

This unique historic property offers a sophisticated setting, accompanied by good food with impeccable service. The Leopold prides itself on exceptionally high standards, as one would expect in a top-class boutique hotel.

The Leopold has that little something extra and alternative to offer – it's smart and sophisticated yet fun and just that little bit quirky.

Welcome to your Wedding Day...

Arrive at the hotel early and start those final preparations for the day, and maybe indulge in a glass of Champagne to kick the celebrations off in style!

Later our five intimate occasion suites will offer the perfect setting for your celebrations. The stylish Library Suite is where your guests will gather as you walk down the aisle and prepare to take those all important vows. The Library Suite can be reduced in size for that extra special unique feel.

After the ceremony enjoy the dashing interiors of the Faraday or Bessemer Suites for a delightful champagne and canapé reception, or on a gorgeous summer's day why not take to our outside terrace.

Having enjoyed the canapés and had those perfect pictures taken our master of ceremonies will call you through to the Oak Suite for a sumptuous tailor-made wedding Breakfast accompanied by the delicate tastes of our fine wines.

As the evening beckons its time for those eagerly anticipated speeches before welcoming more guests for your evening reception. From Jazz bands, string trios to a Ceilidh Band, we have the perfect artistes to really add a memorable touch to your day. And when it comes to more food Why not treat your guests to hot roast pork sandwiches – freshly carved in the room .

Relaxed, happy and yet utterly shattered at the end of the day, retire to one of our stunning Mezzanine Suites and commence married life in true luxury and style.

And as you start the first full day of married life you can enjoy a champagne breakfast in bed, as well as a lazy morning together before a late check out.

Sounds good? It should be! After all we expect it to be one of the best days of your life.
